GENERAL RULES

The following rules apply for all disciplines:

1. All the other criteria regarding the first-time appointment as professorial staff (Assist. Prof., Assoc. Prof. & Prof.) and extension of the period of duty is as stated in EMU Rules and Regulations. Academic Evaluation Criteria are used for first-time appointment and promotional purposes.
2. "National" or "domestic" events refer to events taking place in Turkey, TRNC or home country of the professorial staff which are not regarded as international events.
3. Scoring of joint work is conducted as stated at the end of the discipline score distribution chart, if not defined otherwise. If nothing has been specified about the scoring, the author gets full points in publications with a single author, and the score is divided equally among the authors in publications with multiple authors. The chart in question is not used for joint event scorings in doctoral and assistant professorship evaluations. All publications are evaluated separately based on the principle of "single author".
4. Criteria for disciplines that are not mentioned in this document is to be added to the present criteria upon the decision of University Executive Board on the matter. However, in case of an urgent need for these disciplines, in accordance with the general applications in other disciplines; Inter-University Council criteria for associate professorship will be sought for promotions to associate professorship, and twice the criteria for associate professorship for promotions to professorship.
5. Bearing in mind the Science Disciplines and Key Words list accessible at TR Inter-University Council's website (the Associate Professorship Application Requirements tab available under the Associate Professorship Information System page), candidates must specify a science discipline and a minimum of 1 (one), maximum of 3 (three) keywords related to the specified field of science.
6. Language proficiency requirements for applicants;
 - a. For Associate Professorship application, candidates must score the points specified below out of 100 points from international foreign language exams accepted as equivalent to the central foreign language exams by the Higher Education Council;
 - i. minimum 80 points for candidates who work in English-medium programs,
 - ii. minimum 65 points for candidates who work in Turkish-medium programs.
 - b. For Assistant Professorship or Professorship application, at least one of the criteria below should be met;
 - i. Candidates must obtain following points out of 100 points from international foreign language exams accepted as equivalent to the central foreign language exams by the Higher Education Council;

1. minimum 80 points for candidates who work in English-medium programs,
 2. minimum 65 points for candidates who work in Turkish-medium programs.
- ii. The candidate's mother tongue being English.
 - iii. Candidate is required to meet the following criteria;
 1. Completing at least two of the undergraduate, postgraduate or doctorate degrees in an English-medium Program in the event of working in an English-medium program,
 2. Completing at least one of the undergraduate, postgraduate or doctorate degrees in an English-medium Program in the event of working in a Turkish-medium program.
7. Mandatory Total Points might be increased if all the special conditions for disciplines have been met.
 8. Each piece of work is scored by being included in only one section of the ADEK score table (including Att. A).
 9. For all disciplines, candidates are obliged to get 20 points for Associate Professorship and 40 points for Professorship from the scorecard stated in Att. A (old ADEK scorecard).
